Reflecting on informal Practice

Practice	What was the situation?	What did you notice before?	What did you notice after?	What did you learn?

Take a little time each day to reflect on you practice. This information can help you deepen your daily experiences of informal practice.

Adapted from Stahl and Goldstein's Mindfulness based stress reduction (2010)